WASHINGTON ARLINGTON CATHOLIC FORENSIC LEAGUE CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this association shall be the Washington Arlington Catholic Forensic League (WACFL).

SECTION A. NCFL Affiliation

This association shall be technically comprised of two memberships only for the purpose of affiliation with the National Catholic Forensic League (NCFL).

1. One membership shall include schools located within the Archdiocese of Washington.
2. One membership shall include schools located within the Diocese of Arlington.
3. If no local league from the Diocese of Richmond exists within the NCFL in a given year, one additional membership shall include schools located within the Diocese of Richmond.

SECTION B. Joint Tournaments

Neither Diocesan membership may hold independent WACFL tournaments.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Washington Arlington Catholic Forensic League shall be the development of critical thinking and articulate leadership by the promotion of speech activities in and among the teams of its member schools.

The WACFL is organized as an association exclusively for charitable and educational purposes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal code. Upon dissolution of the WACFL, any assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal, state, or local government, for a public purpose.

The WACFL as an association shall have the further right to do any other act or thing incidental to or connected with the foregoing purpose or in advancement thereof, except, however, the association (i) will distribute its income for each tax year at a time and in a manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by section 4942 of the Code; (ii) will not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in section 4941(d) of the Code; (iii) will not retain any excess business holdings as defined in section 4943(c) of the Code; (iv) will not make any investments in a manner as to subject it to tax under section 4944 of the Code; and (v) will not make any taxable expenditures as defined in section 4945(d) of the Code.

The WACFL has not been formed for pecuniary profit or financial gain, and no part of the net earnings, assets, income, or profit of the association shall be distributable to, or inure to the benefit of, any private person, except that the association shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in this article. No substantial part of the activities of the association shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, and the association shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the association shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an association exempt from Federal Income Taxation under § 501(c)(3) of the Code, or (b) by an association, contributions to which are deductible under § 170(c)(2) of the Code.

ARTICLE V. TOURNAMENT OFFICIALS

SECTION A. The Vice Presidents

Each Vice President shall have complete charge, except as noted in IV.B.3.a.(2) of his respective division of all tournaments in accordance with the rules of such tournaments as specified in the Constitution and its By-Laws.

1. Each Vice President shall be empowered to establish and promulgate such regulations and procedures as he deems necessary to facilitate conformity with such rule and/or efficient conduct of his respective division.
2. Each Vice President shall adjudicate all disputes that may arise and make interpretations of the rules as may be necessary concerning the conduct of his respective division.
 - a. Protests may only be registered by a coach or his properly designated assistant.
3. With the approval of the President, each Vice President may delegate his authority to another member of the Executive Committee. The concurrence of the President is not obligatory when obtaining such approval would be difficult or impractical.
4. Each Vice President shall require participating schools to furnish competent judges to his respective division and shall establish and promulgate qualifications required to judge the categories within the division.
5. Each Vice President shall be responsible for the preparation of instructions for judges and the distribution of those instructions at each tournament.
6. Each Vice President may appoint one or more assistants to facilitate, under his supervision, the conduct of his respective division.
7. Each Vice President may disqualify a judge for cause in writing. In the event where a bona fide Policy Debate, Speech, Lincoln-Douglas Debate, Public Forum Debate, or Student Congress Coach is disqualified in that respective division, in addition to other appeals stipulated in the By-Laws, he shall have the additional right to appeal to the membership at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Executive Committee. A disqualified non-coach may be reinstated at the discretion of the League Officers.
8. The Vice Presidents shall be responsible for the certification of those contestants who qualify to participate in the Metropolitan Championship Tournament.
9. The Vice President of Speech shall be responsible for the preparation of an adequate number of topics concerning current events, which shall be, as far as possible, of equal weight and significance for use in extemporaneous speaking.

SECTION B. Tournament Directors

Each Tournament Director shall fulfill the following duties for his respective division.

1. He shall be responsible for the preparation of all schematics.
2. He shall be responsible for the tabulation of all results.
3. He shall be responsible for the compilation and publication of results.
4. He shall be responsible for the assignment of judges.

ARTICLE VIII. AMENDMENTS

SECTION A. Amendment Proposed at a Meeting

An amendment to this Constitution and/or its By-Laws may be proposed at any official meeting by any member of the Executive Committee to be acted upon at the following League Meeting.

SECTION B. Amendment Proposed by Mail

An amendment to this Constitution and/or its By-Laws may be proposed in writing prior to an official League meeting to be acted upon at that meeting.

1. The amendment proposal must be in the President's possession at least thirty days prior to the meeting.
2. The President must mail copies of the proposed amendment to the member schools at least ten days prior to the meeting.

SECTION C. Amendment Proposed by Committee

An amendment to this Constitution and/or its By-Laws may be proposed and acted upon at the same meeting if it results from a report of a committee established at a prior meeting and thereby placed on the agenda with due notice.

SECTION D. Amendment Ratification

1. Voting Procedures shall be those in Article VII.
2. Approval must be a two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) vote.
3. All Constitutional and/or By-Laws changes adopted at the Fall meeting shall take effect immediately. Those changes adopted at the Spring meeting shall take effect the following competition year, unless a separate motion is made for the change to take effect immediately with this separate motion requiring a four-fifths ($\frac{4}{5}$) vote to pass.
